Stated dimensions are measured to the exterior boundaries of the exterior walls and the centerline of interior demising walls and in each case from the dimensions that would be determined by using the dimension such definition of the "NAFM" and BOMA (Building Owners and Managers Association) only and not the interior area specified in the lease or the lease plan. Dimensions shown are approximate and may differ from plans and drawings and may vary due to architectural or structural requirements. In no event shall such dimensions differ by more than 3% from the actual measurements. Multiplying the floor area by the ceiling height (7'-6") results in cubic feet. Some appliances and equipment may not be shown on floor
